No 12
of Huntsinger
 Daniel Huntsinger's father was Jacob, who died about 1840, at his son Henrys near Mishawaka, Indiana; his mother was Mary or Maris Burkett, (then called Burkhard), she died some time after 1823. Henry was the oldest child; then Isaac, born 1794, whose first wife was Mary Wolf, they second wife was also Mary....; they lived in Jefferson Twp., Carroll Co, Ind. in 1850 and had a young daughter born about 1848.

Daniel, Jr. come in next perhaps. Daniel had another brother : —

Eli Huntsinger born 1803, a carpenter that lived at Lafayette in 1860. Eli had at least five children, among them a son Arthur, a son Will am and three daughters, one marrying a Vaughn: They seem to have left L. Fayette, Ind. about Civil War times.

Henry Huntsinger lived at Mishawaka, Ind.

I am very much interested in your statement that Daniel Huntsinger was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, down the Potomac River where George Washington was born. I never imagined the Huntsingers lived in the George Washington neighborhood. My understanding is that he was born in Ashe County, North Carolina, then Wilkes Co. (Ashe Co, was not formed until 1788 and that it was a county bordering on Tennessee and also on Virginia. I will write Mrs. Morrow about this and will also write or some of us will, the others for their family records.

Did you ever hear of Mrs. Samuel Myers and her daughter Mary Overholser, at Flora, Indiana. Mrs Myers father and mather were John and Mary Burket who lived with Mrs. Myers when old in 1870. I cant get this relationship to our Burketts.

Lizzie Jester and Mrs. Mitchenor Tucker were sisters of Daniel Huntsinger and Henry Huntsinger.

Mr. Charles Drake, a grandson of the seventh child of Henry Huntsinger, owner of a Department Store at Elkhart, Ind., told me that Henry's father Jacob came to this country from Holland, couldnt pay for passage. As Jacob married Jehu Burketts oldest daughter, I might say that Jehu was married about 1762; lived in Frederick County, Maryland until 1775; and 1778 filed on 235 acres of land belonging to the state of North Carolina, on Reedy Creek, Rowan County, N. C. This is near Winston Salem, N. C.

There is the brother Jacob and Mathias looks like Mathias Jacob
 In Dec. 1783, Mathias Huntsinger filed on 222 acres of land belonging to the State of North Carolina on the same creek and in same county. It adjoined the land of Boston Grimes; and the Grimes family are still there. Mathias sold out in 1787, and his name is not found in that county again.

Ashe County, N. C. is about 150 miles west of Rowan County and in the mountains. In June 11, 1788, Jacob Huntsinger obtained a tract of Land of 100 acres in Ashe Co. and in 1796, 50 acres, but in 1801 Jacob sold 110 acres of it to Christian Burkett. There were two Christian Burkets, one a brother-in-law of Jacob; one went to Miami Co., Ohio, his second wife being a Bonner; the other died in Ashe Co, N. C. in 1850; I dont know which was the brother in law. The deed of sale of the 100 acres of land was witnessed by Joseph Kessler.

(Mathias)
 In April 1792, Mitthias Honsinger was a witness to a deed granting David Burkett 40 acres in Ashe Co, N. C. (David was not of our branch; his descendants settled later in Henry Co, Ind., near Newcastle and Knightown) This is the last record I could find of this older Mathias Huntsinger. Mathias died in 1805 in Christian Co, Ky.

Henry Huntsinger, his wife, and one daughter were found by the Census in Ashe Co, N.C. 1810. I did not find the father Jacob any place in 1810.

Jacob Huntsinger, his wife and several children were found in Madison Twp., Montgomery Co, Ohio in 1820; Jacob didnt own any land. Jehu Burkett lived in the adjoining township and some of his children lived in Madison Twp. In 1816, Henry Huntsinger acquired 40 acres near Salem, Randolph Twp., Montgomery Co, Ohio but sold it in 1819. Was blacksmith.

Mathias must be younger than Eli - could be a son of Jacob Daniel Huntsinger married Sarah Hess in 1820 and lived in Randolph Twp., until 1835 thereafter in Carroll County, Ind.

Isaac Huntsinger married Mary Wolf in 1819 and lived in Dayton Twp., Montgomery Co, O

Mathias Huntsinger married Rachel Bonner in 1825, obtaining the license in Montgomery County, Ohio; they lived thereafter in the next county, Miami, near Tippecanoe City, Ohio. This may have been his second marriage, because in 1830 the Census shows some children over ten years old in the family. The land records of Miami Co., has no record of Mathias owning land there. The Census of 1850 Shows Rachel to be a widow, born 1801, in North Carolina and there lived with her Abram, born 1825, Sophia born 1833, and Sarah A. born 1843. This, therefore, must be the family that came to St. Joseph Co, Ind when Martha was four years old. This agrees with all except the name of the youngest child which was thought to be Fanny.

Mathias Huntsinger and Henry were brothers.

Records of Miami County, Ohio show:- Estate of Abraham Huntsinger, settled 1857; in another case in Oct. 1859, guardians were appointed for Martha and Margaret Huntsinger but do not know who their parents were.

John Huntsinger entered Govt. land in St. Joseph Co., Indiana in 1831. His father lived with him and was alive as late as 1840. Don't know when the father died. John's wife was Maria and she was a Heikes Lizzie Jester (a Dunkard), Mrs. Mitchenor Tucker, Eli and John Huntsinger were brothers and sister.

Mr. Lewis N. Jester, who taught school new 79 years old in 1928. Lived at Lafayette, Ind. His grandmother was a Huntsinger of the same family as Eli and John Huntsinger also that Mrs. Teresa Mintonye, married in 1850, was Huntsinger; on her marriage a man named Rutherford gave his consent as her guardian; and name of father is unknown.

The History of Cass Co, Ind. of 1882, gives biographies of some Tucker's and Castle and states that their grandmother was a Huntsinger.

Lizzie Jesters husband, Isaac, and Mitchenor Tucker entered Govt. Land near Lafayette in 1828, coming probably the former from Miami Co, Ohio and later from Madison Twp. Montgomery County, Ohio. Eli and John Huntsinger located in Lafayette about 1830.

Some of the men Huntsinger married a Miss Stahn (?).

Here is the authority that Henry Huntsinger's mother was a Burkett:-- The two families were associated together in North Carolina and came to the same neighborhood in Ohio about the same time. Jehu Burkett in his will of 1823 names Mary Huntsinger as one of his nine children. Nathaniel Burkets descendants have a paper showing that Mary's husband was Jacob Huntsinger. Daniel Huntsinger performed work for the estate of Jehu Burkett's son in 1817 as chain bearer

Ben. Kessler married Sarah Burket, b. 1804, dau of John & Mary (Bonner) Burkett --not our Burketts but probably related.

HISTORY OF WARRICK COUNTY.

from the latter State to Warrick County in the year 1803, and remained until his death in 1821. His family consisted of ten children, of whom ~~none~~ are yet living. Scarcely had John Sprinkle settled in his new home ere he looked around upon others who had followed him. In the fall of the same year Felty Hay and James Lynn moved into this township, and others came in straggling groups soon after. As the land in Warrick County was not surveyed until 1805, all settlers before that time were from necessity squatters, and it was some time even after that before the land was placed on sale by the Government. Up to the year 1820 the land entries for what now constitutes Ohio Township were made as follows: Brittain West, 1816; John Hale, 1816; William Johnson, 1818; Lewis James, 1813; William Hancock, 1814; William G. Buckler, 1819; Adam Snyder, 1817; John Alexander, 1818; William Bullitt, 1819; John Miller, 1819; Daniel James, 1817; Gains H. Roberts, 1817; Alva Pasco, 1819; Richard Vankirk, 1811; Annanias S. Merritt, 1819; Nathaniel Ewing, 1814; Nicholas Boswell and Fred C. Graff, 1815; Gen. W. Johnson, 1807; Felty Hay and Simon Lane, 1811.

The tract entered by Johnson in 1807 was the first in the county, and comprised 205 acres at the present location of Newburgh. Some of these persons had been in the county for a considerable time before purchasing land. They had come to their new homes without money, and it required time for them to stem the current and be able to buy a home.

On August 1, 1814, an election was held in Ohio Township for Representative in Congress and members of the Territorial Legislature. Fifty-five votes were cast. Samuel Snyder, Thomas Morton and William Berry were Judges; James G. Jones and William Ross, Clerks at this election. At that time the township was larger than now, and comprised much of what is now Campbell.

Early Elections.—On the 13th of May, 1816, an election was held at the house of William Berry, in this township, for the purpose of choosing a delegate to the Constitutional Convention preparatory to the admission of Indiana into the Union as a State. Thirty-eight votes were cast, of which Daniel Grass received thirty-five, Bailey Anderson two, and Aeneas McAllister one. Samuel Snyder was President of the election board, and William Berry, Joab Garrett and Fulkard Fulkerson were Judges, and the Clerks were Azel W. Dorsey and William Ross. By order of the Board of County Commissioners an election was held on the 4th of August, 1817, for the purpose of electing a member of Congress and a Representative in the State Legislature. The candidates were respectively Thomas Posey and Ratliff Boon, and they received all the votes of Ohio Township to the number of thirty-seven. The election place was at the house

He was a son of Philip Fulkerson. Alfred married Hannah, daughter of Septimus I. Taylor, of Ohio County; she died in 1876, about the age of fifty years, and their children are Margaret E. (Wallace), William T., Eliza J. (Dexter), John C., James A., Septimus P., Charles W., Priscilla M., and Sarah C. (Maddox). April 16, 1878, Mr. Fulkerson was married to Mary L., daughter of Elijah and Nancy (Stateler) Maddox, of Ohio County, born October 20, 1858, and to them have been born Ida E. (deceased), Nannie Ettie, and Owen Pigman. Mr. Fulkerson is a farmer and miner, and on the farm is chiefly engaged in raising corn, tobacco and stock. Gaines, a native of Virginia, who immigrated to east Tennessee when a young man and married Eliza Baird, who died in 1836, leaving three children: Martha, Jane and James. His second marriage was in 1838, with Miss Rhoda Choram, who died in 1860, leaving nine children: Mary E., John P., William W., Rhoda E., Samuel S., Franklin P., Henry A., Melissa F. and Thomas J. His third marriage was with Mrs. Elvira E. Woods, nee Turner, who survives him, he having died February 9, 1883; by this marriage he left three children: Jasper N., Baylos E. and George C. (deceased). William W. Gaines removed with his father, in 1858, to Butler County, Ky., where he remained until 1862, when he joined the Union army; enlisted in Company D, Eleventh Regiment Kentucky Volunteer Infantry, in which he served three years under Gen. Sherman; was engaged in the battles of Rural Hill and Stone River, where he was wounded and his brother John was killed. He was also engaged in the siege of Knoxville, and through the Georgia campaign from Loudon, Tenn., to Atlanta, Ga., from which point he returned with his regiment to Louisville, Ky., and was discharged in June, 1865, after which he spent about four years in travel. April 18, 1869, he married Mary C., daughter of Philip and Martha Davenport; he resided on a farm of fifty acres belonging to his wife until 1879, when he bought 150 acres of land, where he now lives, eighty-five of which are under cultivation, and improved with fences, dwelling, barns, etc. Mr. Gaines prides himself in owing no man a dollar. In connection with the raising of grain and tobacco, Mr. Gaines gives his attention to the breeding of fine stock. He and Mrs. Gaines are members of the Baptist faith. Mr. G. is a Republican, but often votes for Democrats, at all times being governed by the character and qualifications of the man.

THOMAS GILLSTRAP, Ohio County, is the eldest son of Jesse Gillstrap, who was born in Butler County in 1813, and died in Cromwell in 1879. He was twice married; first to Mary S. He was born in Butler County, January 12, 1837, and brought up in Ohio County, to which county he went with his parents in 1839, and where he was educated in the common schools. He commenced mercantile life in 1858, as clerk for Charles E. Haynes, of Cromwell, continuing with him six months; then with A. H. Kahn, of the same place; then with L. S. In 1870, he started for himself in general merchandise, and now has two large stores, dry goods, clothing and a grocery store, and is one of the leading merchants of Ohio County. His annual sales of $25,000 are among the largest in the county. He is noted for strict integrity and fine business ability, and is widely known throughout the town and country. His brother, F. M. Gillstrap, was a member of the Twenty-sixth Kentucky Regiment, and was captain of his company and Provost Marshal, and always proved himself a gallant soldier. He is now employed in his brother's store, as is also another brother, P. W. Gillstrap.

WILLIAM A. GORDON was born June 19, 1844, in Daviess County, Ky. His father, Obadiah Gordon, was a Virginian, who immigrated to Kentucky and settled in Daviess County in 1837, and in 1864 removed to Ohio County, where he died in 1883, aged about eighty-eight years. In early life he followed the trade of a carpenter and builder, but later took up the vocation of farming. Subject's grandfather was a native of Scotland; immigrated to America and died in welfare until 1841, when he left them, and learned the carpenter's trade with Asa Bennett. He engaged in farming three years on an unimproved tract of land, which he cleared and improved. This place he sold and bought an improved farm, which he conducted until 1859, when he traveled over Texas prospecting for a location till 1860, when he returned to Ohio County and read medicine up to September, 1861. He enlisted as a private in Company D, Twenty-sixth Kentucky Volunteer Infantry, Federal service, and, six months later, was promoted to hospital steward, and in this capacity, and that of assistant surgeon, served until July, 1865. He was in the engagements at Shiloh, Nashville, Ft. Anderson, at the surrender of Joseph Johnson, etc. At the close of the war he entered into mercantile business at Beda, this county, and continued fourteen years, during which he practiced medicine eight years. He then entrusted his son John B. with the management of the store, and moved on the farm, where he now resides, consisting of 600 acres with brick residence and otherwise well improved. He is a large dealer in tobacco. Mr. Foster has been married three times. His first wife was Miss Altha A. Bennett; by this union there is one child living, Joseph N., now an attorney at Marshfield, Mo. His second marriage was to Miss Eliza Tinsley, who left one son, John B. His third marriage was to Miss Nancy C. Carson, they have one child, Minnie, at home. He is a Methodist, and in politics a Prohibitionist.

His father, Alexander Frazier, was born in 1793, in Shelby County, and died in Grayson County, in 1864. He was the son of Andrew Frazier, of Maryland, a Revolutionary soldier of Scotch-Irish descent. Alexander married Rosana, daughter of Absalom and Diademia (Webb) Pierce, of Shelby County, born in 1805, and now living, and to them were born Andrew J., Absalom P., Alfred (deceased), Allen L. (died a prisoner of war at Richmond, Va.), Gilbert H. (deceased), Ann A. (McDaniel), Elvira and John W., who was drowned while in the army. Mr. Frazier is a farmer, owning 100 acres of good land. Being unmarried he is living with his mother and sister. Mr.

Frazier is a member of the Reformed Church, and in politics a Republican.

WILLIAM H. FULKERSON was born in Ohio County, December 13, 1822, and is a son of Fulkerd and Mary (Coleman) Fulkerson, the former of whom was a native of Mercer and the latter a native of Ohio County, Ky. They were of English and German descent, respectively. Fulkerd Fulkerson, when a young man, about 1812, came with his parents, who were among the early settlers, to Ohio County, Ky., then almost a wilderness. Here his father, Philip Fulkerson, bought several thousand acres of military lands and improved a farm, upon which he resided until his death. In this county Fulkerd Fulkerson was married, and after attaining his majority improved a farm on a part of his father's purchase, where he remained until the fall of 1823, when he sold and removed to White County, Ill., where he bought a farm, and resided for some thirty-five years. His wife died in 1850, and in 1858 he sold his farm and returned to Kentucky, making his home with his children until his death, which occurred in April, 1867, in his seventy-second year. He and wife were life-long members of the United Baptist Church. William H. Fulkerson received such an education as could be obtained in the early schools of the Illinois frontier. He was employed on his father's farm until he was sixteen years old. He then learned the cooper's trade, and followed the same in Illinois for about four years. In 1842, he returned to Ohio County Ky., where he was employed almost exclusively at his trade for some three years. In the winter of 1843 he got out and ran a flat boat load of staves down the rivers to New Orleans. In 1845 he bought a partially improved farm near Rockport, where he was engaged in farming in connection with his trade. In 1855 he sold this place and bought another in the same neighborhood, upon which he resided for some ten years. In 1865 he again sold out and bought the farm of 320 acres, which is now well improved, near Hogg's Falls, upon which he now resides and where he is extensively and successfully engaged in agricultural pursuits and in stock raising. For many years he made the culture of tobacco a specialty. He was married, July 6, 1846, to Fannie R. McConnell, a native of Muhlenburgh County, Ky. Eleven children were the fruit of this union, ten of whom—six sons and four daughters—are yet living. Mr. Fulkerson is and has been for over forty years a devoted member of the United Baptist Church; is also a member of the Masonic fraternity, Volckert Dircks, son of Dirck Holgerson Noormanⁿ and Christina Vigne, was baptized Nov 15, 1643, New Amsterdam Dutch Reformed Church co-sponsors being: Cornelis Tienhoven, Secretary, Jan Jansen Damen and Philip Graer^a; he died on his Boswyck farm in the 57th yr. of life circa 1700; he married circa 1665 Annetje Phillipse, a daug. of Philip Langelan (see end of this Skelch for Langelan) Annetje was born in Europe.

In 1663, and prior to his marriage, Volckert is listed as a member of the Boswyck Militia no Rank given.

In 1673 Volckert was the Magistrate of Boswyck. As a leading citizen of the community, Volckert headed a list of Boswyck men who took The Oath of Allegiance to the English Crown in 1678, also in that yr., Volckert's name appeared 3rd among the Freeholders named in the charter granted to the Town of Boswyck (Bushwick) by Governor Dongon.

Volckert came into possession of the bulk of his Father's large Estate. As he was assessed in 1683, on 200 acres which with his personal property made him next to Pieter Jans De Witte and Carel Fonteyn the largest tax payer in the

of Township.

Volckert appears to have sold some land to Jan^{as} Meserole at Boswyck; lying between Peter Praas's land and the land of Hannah (sic) ffolcutt. "Hannah ffolcutt" was later identified as Volckert's sister, Jannetje Schamp.

In 1685, Volckert sold "a little more than 9 morgens," of land at the dividing line between Boswyck and Breucklan to Peter Praas under the stipulation that Praas was not to dam up the water in the Crippelbos. Note: at this date 2 morgens to equal one acre. And the Crippelbos was later the "Hallabaut Creek."

The last record this writer has of Volckert Dircks is of Nov. 21, 1686, when he was a baptismal sponsor at the Brooklyn Dutch Church for a child of Geant Harje.

Yr. of his death somewhat ^{King's Co. Census.} between 1695-6, Anna Volkertse, (^{widow of Volckert Dircks} Annetje Philipse), is listed as Head of a Boswyck family of 8 children but no adult male in her home.

She died after ^{or about} 1701 - 1718-9 her sons Dirck Philip, & Nicholas sold all their inherited lands at Bushwick to Peter Praas.

Young Family Has Dinner At Geff; 137 Attend

One hundred thirty-seven relatives were called to order by President Connie White at the 11th annual Young Family Reunion held Sunday, August 27, at the Geff Ruritan Building. Floyd Young asked the blessing then the group enjoyed the potluck dinner at noon.

Officers for 1989 are:

Terry Stevenson, President;

Connie White, Vice President.

Bonita Young, Secretary-Treasurer.

The youngest family member present was Krishna Hughes. Max and Nancy Young of Wheeling, West Virginia, traveled the furthest.

Amusing prizes were given to Lisa Fenton for having the shortest fingernails and to Steven Mark as the one under twelve who had the most teeth missing. Matthew Young received a key ring for being the closest to receiving his driver's license.

The next reunion will be August 26, 1990 at the Geff Ruritan Building.

This reunion for the descendants of John and James Young who came to Wayne County in 1818 has generated considerable family research. Several of the

June 25, 1987

Dear Ms Hanniford,

I recently read your query in "The Silent Footsteps" (January 1982) and was interested in your listings for Young and Funkhouser.

I am descended from William Young (b. 29 Dec 1785) who m. 13 March 1806 in Ohio County Mary Compton (b. 12 Nov. 1785) d/o Augustine Compton and Anne Threlkeld.

We know nothing about William's parents or any brothers or sisters, but I have long been curious about Polly Young who m. 8 Aug 1807 (also in Ohio County) to Isaac Funkhouser. Could she be a sister to William?

I became even more curious when I read the following (from Kentucky Pioneer's Yearbook 1983):

CHRISTOPHER FUNKHOUSER b. ca 1760, d. Oct 1821, Butler Co. m. Margaret "Peggy" Young. Children: Jacob b. ca 1782, Katherine "Kitty" b. ca 1783 m. Christopher Young, John b. Sept 4 1785 m. Elizabeth Newman, Robert Roland b. May 5, 1789 m. Rachel Cross, Isaac b. 1790 m. Mary "Polly" Young, Mary "Polly" b. 1793 m. Elijah Cravens, Young b. Aug 1794 m. Mary "Polly" Cross, Wilson Lee b 1795 m. Caty Morris, Erkin b. ca 1800 m. Elizabeth Worthington, Abraham b. ca 1806 m. Eliza _____, Elizabeth b. ca 1804 m _____ Smith.

I also notice that the only Funkhouser listed in the state of Kentucky in 1820 is in Grayson County, which is, of course, where my William Young was. (This was L. Wm Funkhouser listed as (26-45) with children as follows: 1 male (0-10) 1 female (0-10) and his wife (26-45).

Do you know anything about the Polly Young who m. Isaac Funkhouser? Is she possibly related to my William? I would appreciate any information you might have. I am glad to share with you any information I have on William Young's descendants. (I presently have listings of about 500). I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Sincerely,
Debra Y. Smith

children as follows: 1 male (10-12) 1 female (10-12) and his wife (10-12).

Do you know anything about the Billy Group also Mr. Jones mentioned? Is the group related to any other? I must appreciate any information you might have. I am glad to share with you any information I have on this group. Please describe it as fully as you know of about 200. I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Sincerely,
John J. Davis

office holding in this numerous family until the second generation, when Robert B. McAfee took some civic as well as military honors, which will be shown in his biography as Lieutenant Governor, and occasionally one of their descendants named will be found on the Legislative roll which will be found in this series. The McAfees were devoted to Gen. Washington, their old military chief. He was to them pre-eminently the father of his country.
They utterly scorned and abhorred the treasonable practices of Sebastian and Burr, and falling into Jefferson's doctrine all of the blood, rank and title, of whatever name, in every state, are found in the Democratic party.
They were as thoroughly Presbyterian as democratic. Cold Sunday dinner and catechism being the distinctive marks of each household, and I was not a little surprised to find in Gen. McAfee's reminiscences, that dancing was their habitual holiday and evening amusement. (Gen. McAfee states that dancing was indulged in to keep up the spirits of the young people—Editorial Note).
So soon as these brothers were sheltered in their own log cabins they proceeded to erect a like house for religious worship, and continued to extend and improve their farms proper with their own homes. They called this church New Providence, not as has been supposed as an acknowlege-ment of the over-ruling influence that led them to this land or protected them through the peril of the wilderness and pioneerage, but in memory of the one in which they had worshipped in the mother state.
Of the McAfee brothers who came to this state, James seems to have been counsellor and leader. He married Miss Clark; George, a Miss Curry;
Robert, Miss McCoun, and Samuel, Miss McCormic, of Rockbridge, Va.
There is a tradition that there was one brother who turned back from the mountain pass and finding himself lonely in his old haunts, drifted off to are occasionally seen on the legislature rolls of the western states. Very few of the name remain amongst us. The pretty little village of McAfee was named for this pioneer family.

Volunteer Infantry, and served as Captain of that company until the fall of 1863. For gallantry, the Captain was recommended for Lieutenant Colonel. He participated in the battles of Shiloh, Vicksburg, Jackson, Mississippi, Chattanooga and others. He resigned soon after the battle of Chattanooga, December 27, 1863. He settled in Jeffersonville in 1860, and laid off Ulm's Addition to Jeffersonville, where he has since been extensively engaged in the grain and stock business. He has built up the grain trade in this locality, and shipped more grain last year than any other man in Southern Illinois, buying and shipping from seven different points, and shipped over 400 car-loads of wheat alone. In 1881, Mr. Ulm built a fine flouring mill in Jeffersonville, which is doing a large custom business. The Captain's grandfather, Matthias Ulm, was a native of Germany; came to America when young, and fought in the Revolutionary war. His grandfather, Nicholas Nathan, was a Hessian soldier, sold to the English Government for ten guineas, and was sent to fight in the Revolution for that Government, but deserted and settled in the Scioto Valley. Our subject was married, June 30, 1854, to Elizabeth J., daughter of John P. W. Allen, of Hamilton County, Ill. They have four children—Matthias B., Clara J., Albion H. and Nathan A. Mr. Ulm owns much property in this village, besides his elevator and mill. He has held a United States Government commission ever since he entered the army, except about two years. He has held the office of Postmaster since 1865. He has been a member of the County Court for the past two years; the last time that he was elected there were but fourteen votes cast against him. He has been Police Magistrate for the past two years, and is Post Commander of the Martin Baker Post, No. 245, G. A. R.

EWING YOUNG, farmer, P. O. Fairfield, was born in the year 1820 in Wayne County, Ill. He was a son of John Young, of Wayne County, Ill., formerly of Kentucky. Our subject was educated in a Wayne County, Ill., pioneer schoolhouse. He is a member of the M. E. Church. He was married, December 16, 1841, to Miss Emily Craven, daughter of Robert Craven, of North Carolina, and by whom he has had ten children, seven living—Johnson, America, Sarah J., Robert, Pruda, Emily and Elmer. Our subject owns 620 acres of land, and is engaged in farming and stock-raising. In politics he is Independent.

CEPHAS YOUNG, farmer, P. O. Fairfield, was born March 22, 1833, in Wayne County, Ill. He was a son of John Young, of Wayne County, Ill., formerly of Kentucky, where he was born August, 1789. He died March 26, 1878, in Wayne County, Ill., and was buried in the family cemetery. He was married, in the year 1808, to Susan Lock, who was born in the year 1789, and who died in the year 1835 in Wayne County, Ill., and was buried in the family cemetery. They had thirteen children, seven living—Malinda, Elizabeth, Ewing, Lucinda, Winnie, Francis M. and Cephas. After the death of Mrs. Susan Young, John Young was married the second time, in the year 1836, to Sarah Reed, of Tennessee, by whom he had four children, three living—Andrew J., Nancy Galbraith and Mariah Blague. Sarah, wife of John Young, died January 10, 1853. Our subject was educated in Wayne County, Ill., in a pioneer schoolhouse. He carried the United States mail in their neighborhood, when a young man, from 1847 to 1851. He is a member and a local preacher of the M. E. Church, and has been for the past twenty-two years. He is also a member of the United Workmen. He was married, July 1,

1862, in Wayne County, Ill., to Nancy J. Stinson, of Illinois, who was born July 29, 1887, by whom the subject had ten children, five living—Richard B., Edwin M., Emma BRUSH CREEK TOWNSHIP.

DR. J. F. BOYLE, physician, Xenia, was born in Posey County, Ind., January 31, 1839, to L. H. and Augusta (Uhink) Boyle. The father was a native of Kentucky, the mother of Bremen, Germany. They are both residents of New Harmony, Ind., where he is engaged in farming. He has resided in Indiana since about 1821. They are the parents of six children, three sons and three daughters, all of whom yet survive. Our subject was reared on the farm, and received most of his education in Owensville, Ind. When starting in the study of his profession, it was with Dr. Stokes, of Grayville, Ill., in 1861. He afterward attended medical lectures at the Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery. In 1868, the Doctor located in Saline County, Ill., where he continued in the practice of medicine till 1871, when he removed to Jefferson County, Ill., where he remained till 1878, and then came to his present location, where he has had an extensive and successful practice. April 30, 1863, he was married, in Saline County, Ill., to Miss Mary E. Cox; she was born in Posey County, Ind., May 13, 1846, and is the daughter of John L. Cox. This union has been blessed with six children—Ida U., Iva A., Ina Lulu, Laura E., Inez Maud and Julia Theresa. In spring of 1861, the Doctor volunteered in the Twenty-first Indiana Volunteer Infantry, as Assistant Surgeon, but on account of ill health he had to resign after about six months. In fall of 1862, he again went out as Assistant Surgeon in the Fifty-eighth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, but after a few months again had to resign. He is identified with the Democratic party. Julius Uhink, the brother of Dr. Boyle's mother, was the Prussian Consul to Mexico during the war between the United States and Mexico, and is now a resident of the City of Mexico.

WILSON M. McKEE, farmer, P. O. Aid, was born in Adams County, Ohio, March 1, 1831, to Joseph and Mary (Akins) McKee. The father was a native of McKeesport, Penn., a place which was named for the great-grandfather of our subject, who came across the water from Germany to America, with eighteen sons, and landed at the future town of McKeesport. The father moved to Kentucky and was there married to the mother of our subject. He died February 17, 1880, at the age of ninety-one years. She died June 14, 1875, aged eighty-two years four months and six days. They were the parents of thirteen children, eight sons and five girls; ten of the family yet survive. Our subject's life has been spent in farming. In 1854, he emigrated to McLean County, Ill., but in 1861 sold his farm and settled his present farm of 120 acres. In 1853, he was married, in Ohio, to Miss Sarah J. Adams, born in Adams County, Ohio, and daughter of James W. and Millie (McCormack) Adams;

This is a diet with a built-in difference: it's based on three weeks of skillfully formulated menus that alternate low-calorie (800) days with moderate-calorie (1,000) and normal-calorie (1,200) days. The payoff? A quick and dramatic weight loss. The bonus? You'll be able to sidestep the pitfalls that doom other low-cal diets: boredom, motivational slump and, worst of all, rebound weight gain. Read the following menus carefully. Then turn to page 49 for specifics on how to make the Rotation Diet work for you. BY MARTIN KATAHAN, Ph.D.

now lives, a place comprising eighty-five acres, which he farmed in partnership with his father until the latter's death. He then inherited this tract, and also bought forty acres adjoining, thus giving him 125 acres all in one body. Here he carries on general farming operations, and also gives some attention to the raising of live stock, feeding about 100 head of hogs a year. He has made many substantial improvements on the place and is considered an up-to-date and progressive farmer. On February 12, 1899, Mr. Rhodes was married to Iattie Sears, who was born in Henry county, Indiana, the daughter of James W. and Mary E. (Pimmons) Sears, both of whom were born and reared in Henry county. Mr. Sears was for many years a blacksmith at Spiceland. Four of their eight children are living, namely: Eva, Walton, Oscar and Iattie. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes have a daughter, Myrtle V., born on December 12, 1901, who was educated at Center school, being a graduate of the high school. On June 6, 1920, she became the wife of Ralph Mofitt, a farmer in Center township. Politically, Mr. Rhodes gives his support to the Democratic party. Personally, he is genial and unassuming and enjoys to a marked degree the good will and esteem of all who know him.

EDWARD A. FARTHING, former trustee of Richland township and former township assessor, and who, after a life of energy and usefulness, is now retired from active labor and enjoying the fruits of his former years of activity, was born in Franklin county, Indiana, on May 10, 1856, and is the youngest of the three children born to his parents, William Alfred and Grabella (Hite) Farming. The paternal grandfather, Edward Farming, who was a native of Rockbridge county, Virginia, came to Indiana in an early day, becoming one of the pioneer settlers of Franklin county, where he entered a large tract of land and there spent the remainder of his days. William A. Farming, who was born in Rush county, grew to manhood in Franklin county, was married there. After the latter event he located on a small farm in that county, but several years later he moved to Howard county, Indiana, where he bought eighty acres of land and devoted himself to its cultivation. He was successful and gradually increased his land holdings there to 250 acres. He remained in Howard county until 1873, when he disposed of his holdings there and, coming to Rush county, bought the land where his son, Edward, now lives, the entire tract then comprising 234 acres. Here he conducted general farming and stock raising, with considerable success, until his retirement, when he moved to Clarksburg, where he lived until going to make his home with his daughter near Indianapolis, where his death occurred in January, 1902. He was a man of active and industrious habits, keen and sagacious in his dealings and at one time was the owner of 284 acres of land. His wife died in June, 1897. They became the parents of three children, namely: Omer, of Indianapolis; Ella, deceased, and Edward A. Edward A. Farming was reared on the paternal farmsteads and received his education in the public schools of Howard a mile long and got off the hard slab on the right hand or south side. Then the truck swerved to the left or north side. I throw on the brakes and ran into the ditch, the bar falling to its side. I crawled out and Albert Robertson, who was riding with me, also crawled out from under the truck. We were both bruised and cold. A passing machine took us to the Mt. Vernon hospital. Treatment was administered to us and at 4:15 p. m. June 11, Albert Robertson died as a result of the injuries received on this auto wreck. We were going about 25 miles per hour when the accident occurred."

The body of the victim was brought to Fairfield Friday night, and taken to his home, on Summit street. He had a wife and two daughters.

The body was taken to the Bunker church, northwest of Cheno, for the funeral Sunday afternoon, and the burial was in the adjacent cemetery. A large crowd attended the services which was conducted by Eld. Henry Kello, of Carmi.

Louise Jane Collins Cravens was born in Wayne county, July 19, 1884; departed this life June 2, 1926, age 41 years, 10 months and 5 days.

She was united in marriage to Joseph Washington Cravens February 22, 1883. To this union 8 children are born, two of whom died in infancy. The oldest daughter, Minnie, departed this life Sept. 20, 1918 at the age of 38 years. Early in life she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church and endeavored to live a faithful Christian life to the end. She was a faithful wife, a kind and loving and affectionate mother. To know her was to love her. She leaves to mourn her departure, her husband, 5 children, one son, Clyde, four daughters, Desie, Iva, Beulah and Lorena. Five grandchildren, two sisters and two brothers besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent bereavement also for the floral offerings.

DEATH OF MRS. DALEY.

Mrs. Sarah J. Daley, wife of Geo. H. Daley, died at her home at 397 West Elm street, in this city, on Sunday morning at 7:20 o'clock. She had been ill for many months and more recently had been quite helpless.

She leaves her husband Geo. H. Daley, a civil war veteran and Andrew J. Daley, of Cobden, Ill., an adopted son for whom the deceased had been a mother since he was two and a half years old.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock by Rev. H. O. Hiser, of Webster Grove, Mo., an old family friend, assisted by Rev. W. J. Fahnstock.

The burial took place in the Maple Hill cemetery.

Sarah Jane Young

daughter of Ewing and Emily Young, was born April 22, 1843, 7 miles west of Fairfield, Illinois. Died June 13, 1926 in Fairfield, Illinois, age 78 years, 1 month and 21 days.

On December 25, 1866 she united in marriage to George H. Daley by Rev. James Johnston in Fairfield, Illinois, pastor of the M. E. church. At the age of 18 she was converted in the old Bethel M. E. church 2 miles west of Fairfield and joined the Mt. Olive M. E. church near her father's home and later years moved her membership to the 1st M. E. church in Fairfield where she resided and remained a faithful Christian member until her death, telling her loved ones just before she passed away that she was ready to go to her heavenly home and her regrets were leaving George alone. If she had lived until December 25, 1926, they would have been married 60 years. She was a wonderful woman, always considerate of others and doing good. Not being blessed with any children of her own she gave a home to two orphan boys, James Craven and Andy Daley and being a devoted mother and rearing them to manhood. She was a devoted wife and mother and her friends only could be counted by the number who knew her. She was widely known and will be sadly missed by her many friends but most by her lonely husband. She leaves to mourn her demise three sisters namely: Mrs. L. T. Hughes of Moorehouse, Missouri, Mrs. J. S. Baldwin, of Quincy, Illinois and Mrs. B. F. Schaefer of near Fairfield, Illinois, and one brother, Robert E. Young of near Fairfield, Illinois the two boys she raised and quite a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Those from out of the county who attended the funeral of Mrs. Daley were: Mrs. Cushing Vick and son James, and Mrs. Z. T. Hughes, of Moorehouse, Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Baldwin, of Quincy, Illinois, Rev. H. O. Hiser, of Webster Grove, Mo., A. J. Daley and family, of Cobden, Illinois.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and at the death of wife and mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Daley.

GEORGE H. DALEY AND FAMILY.

All were proud to live in the greatest country in the world.

Mrs. Helen Marie proved herself an artist at the pipe organ. All enjoyed the solo very much.

Rev. F. J. Weir, pastor of the Baptist church, delivered the address and he is to be commended on the wonderful message given. Rev. Weir is a man with high ideals and we are very fortunate in having him in our community to work for the upbuilding of the cause of education.

The county superintendent of schools is very proud of the graduating class. He is very anxious to turn out of the public schools a product that will do credit to themselves in their every day life as a result of training received in the schools, inasmuch as 35 per cent of the boys and girls never complete a high school training is all the greater reason they should be given a more thorough training in the grades and in this way all will receive a benefit both in and out of high school.

The county superintendent is well pleased with the splendid improvement shown this year in the 481 manuscripts written in the final over those written in the preceding examinations. There is only one way to account for this improvement namely: Better work on the part of the teachers of Wayne county, plus a greater interest on the part of the parents and pupils. All of which go to make "Better Schools for Wayne County."

MRS. CHANEY M. ELLIOTT.

Rebecca Tiekham, was born in Edwards county, Illinois, August 24, 1849; departed this life at Oxley, Mo. June 8th, 1926. Age 76 years, 9 months and 16 days. She was united in marriage to Chaney M. Elliott, November 24th, 1872. To this union was born 8 children. Three having died in infancy. Two sons Morris and Herb who reside near Oxley, Mo., and three daughters Mrs. Hattie Shaw of Fairfield, Illinois; Mrs. Elizabeth Mathews of Hoopeson, Ill.; Mrs. Dollie Malcome of Naylor, Mo., and two stepsons, John S. of Grayville, Ill. Geo. W. of Eldorado, Ark. Besides her husband and children she leaves to mourn her departure 36 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, one brother, three sisters of Albion, Ill. and a host of relatives and friends. She and her husband moved to Wayne county, Illinois, where they lived until 17 years ago last November, when they moved to Oxley, Mo. where they were living at the time of her death.

Death came quietly as relief of her suffering of several months duration. She was converted at the age of 11 years and united with the M. E. church at Albion, Ill., and remained a faithful servant to her God. She was a kind loving wife and mother. Always striving for the welfare of others and will be greatly missed in the community in which she lived.

daughter of Robert and Sarah Cravens, was born in Randolph county, North Carolina, June 12, 1820, and died in Fairfield, Illinois, Jan. 24, 1896, aged 75 years, 7 months, and 12 days. She emigrated with her parents to Tennessee early in life. She was converted at a camp meeting in Tennessee in 1836 and joined the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she has ever since been a faithful member. She came to this state in company with her parents, in 1838, and was married to Mr. Ewing Young, Dec. 16, 1870. To them were born ten children, seven of whom are still living, the others dying in infancy. She leaves a husband, seven children, one brother and one sister and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Young's death was caused by paralysis. She had the third stroke just a week before her death, from which she never rallied, although unconscious for some time before her death. We have the assurance that she has gone to receive her reward in heaven. Another mother in Israel has gone from the church militant to join the church triumphant. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Ravenscroft, assisted by Revs. H. O. Hiler and Robt. Ellis, at Mt. Olivet M. E. church and were attended by a large concourse of people.

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Ewing Young. After Long Affliction, Goes to His Reward.

July 26, 1906

(Written by Rev. F. H. Johnson, Pastor of the
C. P. Church.)

Death is no respecter of persons. The young may die, the old and diseased must die—all must die at last. Some deaths are sad by reason of the loss to dependents, lack of the rounding out of life and the completion of its work; other deaths, as this one, are long expected, the subject fully ripe for the grave and eternity, no dependent left, the great plan and work of life is done, and as in this case well done, so that neither the subject nor his descendants could have any just grounds for regret. Ours is nothing but the sting of sympathy and the poverty we feel at the loss we have sustained.

Mr. Ewing Young was born Nov. 15, 1820, and died at 10:19 a. m., July 20, 1906, aged 85 years, 8 months and 5 days. He was twice married. Of the first marriage 10 children were born, and 7 of them still live, with 35 grand children, and 28 great-grandchildren, in all 70 living descendants, a worthy monument to a worthy man.

He professed religion and united with the Methodist Episcopal church about 60 years ago. So far as the writer knows that life has been a consistent one. Having been born, reared and lived in this immediate community, his life has been an open book, and those who hear can judge for themselves. Except the last few years, which he spent in Fairfield, his life of 85 years has been spent in this immediate neighborhood, and now, when the battle is over he is brought back to his home church and the dear old graveyard to rest his poor, tired body till the last great day.

Mr. Young was a man of influence, and as the world counts greatness, he was a great man. He succeeded in the world. A man of splendid physique and a strong constitution, perhaps overworked in his younger days, yet the vitals, the brain, the lungs and the heart unimpaired, when he came to grapple with the grim monster, death, the battle was long and his tenacity of life was wonderful; yet the giant death, with whom he contended, was invincible and with his iron hooved charger he rode him down at last. The same monster is on your track and mine and sooner or later he will overtake each of us.

For more than a year the writer has known Bro. Young well. I only knew him as an afflicted man. His privations were many, owing only to the care he was compelled to exercise in his eating. He has said to me many a time, "How I did enjoy eating, but it is always a matter of dread to me now." As patient as a child, as submissive as a dutiful child, he bore all of his sufferings as a great hearted christian philosopher. Never a complaint did I hear from him. No afflicted child ever had more tender care both from his wife, his children and the young lady of the home. God bless them all! goodbye husband, goodbye father, goodbye grandfather and great grandfather, goodbye friends and neighbors.

The seven surviving children of Mr. Young's immediate family are H. J. Young, of Linnard; America Hughes, of Big Mound; Sarah Daisy, of this city; R. E. Young, of Arrington, Mrs. Prudy Baldwin and Mrs. Emily Sons, of Linnard, and Mrs. Emma Green, of Arrington.

Mr. Young made a success of life from a financial standpoint. He leaves an estate variously estimated at from thirty to forty thousand dollars, mostly personal property in the shape of notes and mortgages. It is claimed that by the terms of his will, which was filed Monday last, his sons and daughters will get something like $1,000 each including the real estate divided among his children in recent years. The widow, who is Mr. Young's second wife, is to get the home property in this city, and something like $300 in money. Geo. Daisy and Robt. Dickey are made executors of the estate, by the will.

Funeral services were held at Mt. Olivet Sunday morning, Rev. Huntberry preaching from the text, "He rests from his labors, and his work do follow him." Rev. Robt. Ellis also made a few remarks. The burial took place at the Boyce cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended, indicating the wide circle of friends and acquaintances enjoyed by the deceased.

Father, mother and relatives are all saddened with grief, and have the sympathy of the community. But a very short time before he passed away, he sat on the knees of par-gave a last farewell look in the faces of those he loved, as much as to say to them,

"I shortly will be with the angels of God, and shall look for your coming." A short funeral service was had at the house, after which the remains were laid to rest at fort wayne area youth for christ

August, 1984

Dear Friends:

Have you ever noticed how events that you have scheduled way ahead in the future have a way of sneaking up on you? Well, that's the way it is with our sharing dinners. Though they're scheduled for October, they are really just around the corner. By now you've guessed that this letter is about our annual Report To The People Sharing Dinners.

As the program at Youth for Christ has grown over the last several years, so has our need to become more and more effective in getting people together at our sharing dinners to hear the Youth for Christ story. The best means we have found of doing this is getting people to be table hosts and inviting their friends. Our goal is to have over 400 people at our sharing dinner in Wells County - October 29. In order for this to happen we need to enlist 50 table hosts.

This year's dinner not only holds its usual strategic importance but this is our 40th Anniversary of the founding of Youth for Christ. In order to enable us to meet our goals, we're holding an area-wide dessert reception for all of our table hosts as we did last year. The dessert reception is being held September 10 at the Fort Wayne Marriott starting at 7:00 p.m. This reception is being underwritten so you and your spouse can be our guest. Here's what the reception is designed to do:

- 1 - To thank you for your past, present, and future involvement in Youth for Christ.
- 2 - To acquaint you with the exciting new developments in Youth for Christ.
- 3 - To give you in capsule form an idea of what the program is going to be like at your sharing dinner.
- 4 - To allow you the chance to enjoy our musical guest, Pete Carlson, who also will be the special musical guest at your dinner in October.
- 5 - To that evening provide you with everything you need to be a table host.
- 6 - To send you away with a renewed enthusiasm for what God is doing in reaching young people through Youth for Christ.

I need your help. Come join Tim and the rest of the Youth for Christ staff as "The Miracle Continues" September 10, 1984, Fort Wayne Marriott 7:00 p.m. Return your card and join us. We need to hear from you by August 22. God bless you.

county. Our men were there; in defense of Bryan's Station, at Mt. Sterling, and at the bloody Blue Lick. With this disaster our ever brave and rash McGary was charged, and some of our truest and best men were left upon that bootless, bloody field, amongst them the chivalrous Harlan and the lamented Trig, both cut off in the flower of life.

This fall again Gen. Clark was on the war path of retribution and carried waste and destruction to the Ohio tribes who had so persistently warred on Kentucky. Therefore there were no invasions of our borders in force and following the acknowledged Independence the halcyon of peace seemed to brood over the land. "But the trace of the serpent was over it all," for mistrust and apprehension were the Laras and Penates of our rude homes. Neither did the British nor Indians keep the treaty in good faith, but the continually threatened incursion of our old foes, and frequent outrages on our borders committed at by their British allies, caused the immediate taking into consideration all over the country of the most effectual measures that could be adopted for protection.

In 1783, Kentucky had been formed into a district and a court had been established, in which John Floyd and Sam McDowell presided and afterwards George Muter came also to the bench. Walker Daniel was prosecuting attorney. This first session was held in Harrodsburg (1), but for centrally Danville was selected, and a hewed log court house and jail were erected, and the long series of conventions through which Kentucky sought and finally obtained separation from Virginia and admission into the Union, were, with one exception, held in this court house. Previous to the meeting of the first convention General Logan had called an informal meeting of the people to discuss their grievances and devise remedies for them. The chief grievance and source of them all was our dependence on a power too far off and too weak to protect us, while we were hampered by waiting for even tardy legislative leave to organize and defend and avenge ourselves. This meeting decided on a convention, and delegates to this convention were elected by the militia of the country, the military being thus made the novel foundation of civil independence and liberty without the force of arms.

Mercer was formed into a county in June, 1785, contemporaneously with Bourbon and Madison; but in May preceding our county's birth, a second convention had met in Danville, passing strong resolutions in favor of separation from the mother state and sending our addresses to the Assembly of Virginia and the people of Kentucky. And now for a weary time Kentucky was engaged in holding a series of disappointing, but finally successful conventions, through which we worked our way into existence, thus relieving ourselves from the sore evil of living so far from the shield of the power to which we gave tribute and allegiance. In those days of no telegraphs, no newspapers, no daily mails, Danville was the cynosure of all eyes, and living in it was like the privilege of being in the antechamber of a royal palace from whence is momentarily expected the cry of a new born king, so eager, so intense was the desire of the people of these wilds for the privilege of self government.

The years through which these successive conventions lasted, were a period of great interest to the lovers of civil history, and the debates are yet a profitable study for politicians. For in these conventions were assembled the best talent in Kentucky and the ripe experience of the older states. Marshall, Muter, Innis, Crockett, Christian, Sebastian, John Brown, and Wilkerson with all his dash of effrontery and real talent. Besides the question of separation from Virginia and independence, there came up a momentous side issue, the navigation of the Mississippi, which the grasping and domineering short sighted interest of our people has committed. The amendment, freedom and to burst the Petition seeing application of the divine sentiment into the spirit of our were not war-torn measures on the spirit that assailed and to the common to leave no trace of emissaries to Louisiana to empire in the barred by the France holding for their common Spain the free power, but still position seem to her admission Convention Congress, and June, 1792. history of that period, Mercer doubtless had her quota of soldiers; had her benefit from the peace of 1795 which these campaigns extorted; and I suppose shared in the general discontent that was felt that there should be a treaty of peace with the British, even though it secured immunity from Indian hostilities. By the close of this century, the state was engaged framing its second Constitution, in which Mercer was represented by Thomas Allin, Samuel Taylor, Peter Brunner and John Adair. This constitution was an amendment of the first without any startling alterations, went into operation in A. D., 1800, and was superceded by the third until 1850. After this, regularly recurring state and national elections furnished ample excitement for a people that loved it.

Neither did Mercer escape the French phrensy which infected our country at the close of the last and the beginning of the present century. I, myself, remember a clique of gentlemen who, in the evening of their days, showed still the taint of French free thinking; and I have read letters that were almost Jacobinical in their politics from men enjoying places of honor, trust and profit in those days.

Whether Mercer had any men of the 2,000 citizens that Genet, emissary, or minister of the French Republic, whichever you may choose to class him, boasted that he had ready in Kentucky to descend upon the Spanish possessions, I cannot say. Such muster rolls are not apt to be registered in lawful places. Gratitude has always been accounted a fine virtue. France had come so gallantly to our rescue in our long unequal struggle with the mother country, that an American could hardly feel less than brotherhood for a Frenchman, and hardly humanly speaking, feel else than hatred for the British.

Even after incorporation into the Federal Union, Kentucky was continually tempted by foreign intriguants to secede and secure to herself immense advantages as an independent state, or else become a part of a magnificent southwestern confederacy, or empire. Some of the loftiest of her statesmen were dazzled by these brilliant schemes—Brown had not thought it wrong to consider and correspond about them. Gen. Clark actually accepted a high sounding French commission disconnected from our government, however, and little doubt rests on the facts that for a term of years Sebastian received the red gold of Spain as a retaining fee for his influence for their schemes. The last was an unpardonable offense. But for the others who were ready to canvass it as citizens openly, it may be said, it was hard with the resolutions of '98 before one fresh from the pen of the great American apostle of democracy, to prove either nullifications or secession a political crime. The verdict of the war of the rebellion, however, has construed them differently.

But this discussion belongs to our state and national history, not particularly our local columns.

Previous to the organization of Kentucky as a state, Mercer was represented in the Virginia legislature in 1787, John Jouett and William McDowell being our members; '88 and '89, Alexander Robertson and Samuel Taylor served; '90-'91, John Jouett and Anthony Crockett.

After this we had our own state government, and a complete list of representatives both in the state and national legislature will be given as made out, probably with sketches of the lives of prominent members.

This closes the first period of Mercer and Boyle County History and leaves us under the presidency of John Adams; Thomas Jefferson, vice president; James Garrard, governor of Kentucky; Harry Tailman, lieutenant governor. And to this we will add, what we hope will not be considered irrelevant matter, the life of General Mercer.

December 7, 1987

Dear Maurice and Shirley,

Today, December 7, 1987 reminds me of the Japanese Jew: evry December 7 he attacks Pearl Horwitz.

Thanks for the Emily Shelton Sinnett obit. It hurts us to look at that sad picture. You may remember the egg throwing incident that disturbed a worshipong congregation. That occured at the Sinnett home. There are so many of these many aurvivors that I have added another Fairfield check list of people to call for an interview.

Vernette has been from one sewing project to another since you were here. The ultrasuede task was complicated and frustrated but was a success. The two other skirts were mostly time consuming and now she is into Sandy's formal that features all kinds of ruffles and flourishes. After the first of the year she will be busy darning my socks.

After some discussion, there was a change of plans on the queen size sheets so I am glad that I did not buy a set in Fort Wayne.

Some time when we next get together, I would liketo filch some of the notes that Maurice took in Fairfield on births and deaths. I think that is my next big task when we go to Fairfield again.

Oral Bond borrowed a Lawrence County, Illinois history and had us over on Saturday to look at it. It didn't answer any of our questions but it did tell us what happened to some of the old Crews bunch who had disappeared.

Spud reported that Kim said that he had more information on his family than anyone else on the block. He did show some interest but appears that he doesn't care to know too much. I am anxious to hear how his wife fares in her attempt to find her ancestors.

We hope that you all have a great Christmas, and we look forward to getting together again soon.

Bill & Vernette

MR. AND MRS. ROY MORRIS

Roy And Verla Morris, Former Residents Are Wed 47 Years

A former well-known Fairfield couple, Roy and Verla Morris, of Chandler, Arizona, observed their 47th wedding anniversary August 1.

They celebrated the event with family members, Sunday, July 1. Present were their grandchildren: Carol Lee and daughter, Kristen; Roy Les and Sheri and new son, Kyle Roy, and their youngest grandson, Kurt C. Morris. Also present were their nephew, Douglas Withrow and his wife, Emma, who recently moved to Phoenix from Germany.

The celebration was hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Roy F. and Jeanette.

Young and wife Harriett (Harris) Young. (Their picture is enclosed). James Lewis Young, son of James Young, came to Wayne County, Illinois in the company of his brother, John, in 1818. Lewis Young's mother was Carm Powless. Harriett Harris Young's parents were Ransom and Carmelia Kennedy Harris; and Ransom was the son of old Gilliam, and Elsey Whitney Harris. Old Gilliam must have died between 1840 and 1845 as Elsey married a Kenshalo and we presume it was Daniel. The date of the marriage is listed in the Shilo Church, and it gives Daniel Kenshalo as a member at that time.

One of the most amazing things we found about the Lewis and Harriett (Harris) Young family, is there are six grandchildren still living today: Ertis (Young) Baker; Agnes (Young) Dickey; Laslie Young; Lowell Young of Anna; Marie Downs of Santa Barbara, Calif. and Maude (Withrow) Thomason. Aunt

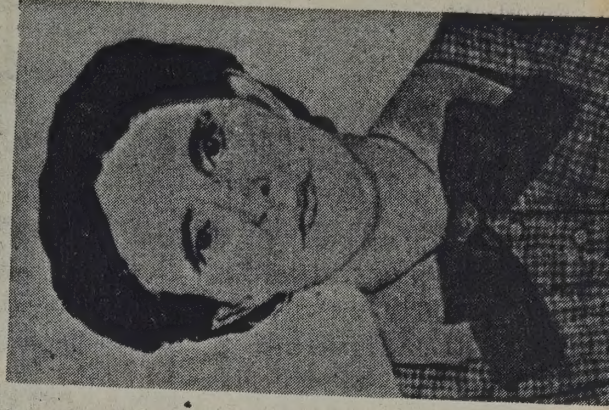

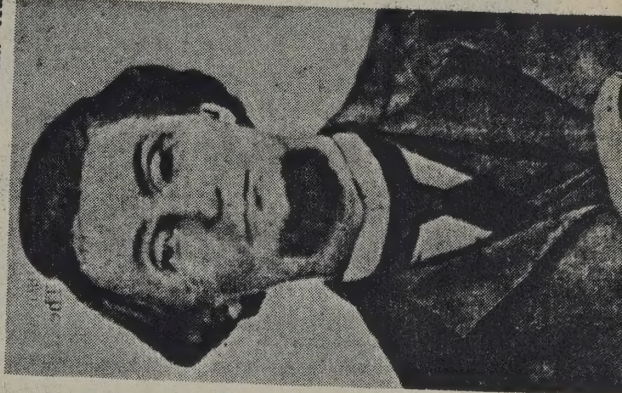

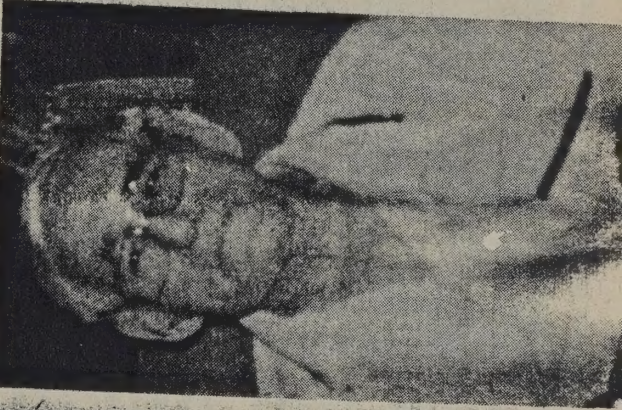

HARRIETT HARRIS YOUNG

Maude was 95 years old last June 27 and is in Mt. Vernon in a Care Facility. Of course my father, Eber Withrow, was a grandson too, but died back on June 21, 1964.

Hope to see many interesting letters in the Pink Press this year.

Wishing a GREAT YEAR for all families in Wayne County.

Roy Morris Family, Former Fairfield Resident Report From Arizona; Tell Some Family History

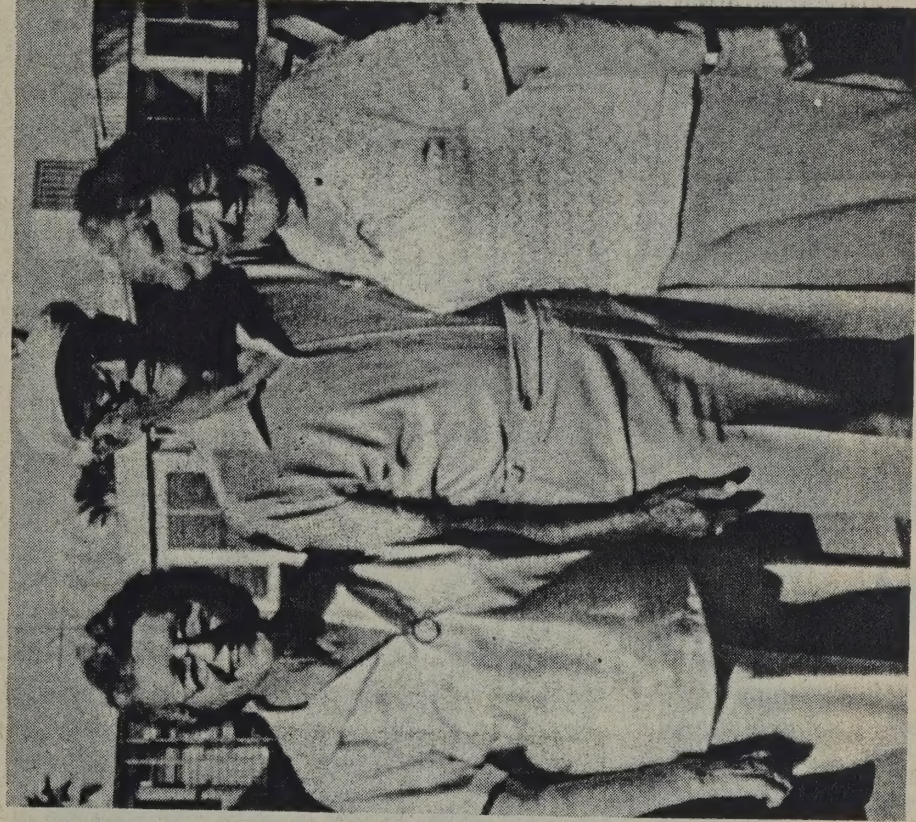

Chandler, Arizona
January 15, 1987
Dear Editor—Greetings to the Press Staff and all our friends in Wayne County. We had another good year and I want this letter to be especially to our friends that I did not get a Christmas card sent to.

Our year had its ups and downs but had many highlights too. Our visitors over the months include Auburn and Doris Stull and brother, Glen and Sybil. They were here in June and they certainly made the day for us and we had fun talking of happenings of the past.

I had another birthday with a celebration and grandchildren to help us count our many blessings. Roy also had his 77th birthday which so many were in doubt that he would ever reach that age. Enclosed a picture taken on his birthday. Bro. Harry L. and Kathryn Garrett came by to see us the last of September and we called the Childress' down so we all had a wonderful visit.

Then on the 20th of December 1986, my great-uncle's youngest daughter, Jewel Withrow Kepley came by for a short visit on their way to California. She is the daughter of Anthony Withrow who left Wayne County years ago to settle in Kansas and that is her home today—Ulysses, Kansas. I've enclosed pictures of the Garretts and also a picture of Jewel and me. It was the first time that we had met though we have been corresponding for the past few years.

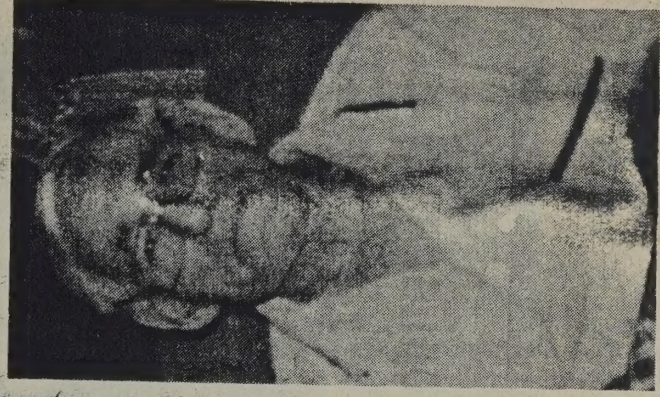

I've been fortunate to receive pictures of my great-grandparents, James Lewis Verla Morris, Rev. Harry Garrett and wife, Kathryn.

Roy And Verla Morris In Arizona Busy Researching Family History

Chandler, Ariz. 85224
January 19, 1988

Dear Editor—In the 1986 and 1987 Pink Press I wrote about our ancestors and we have received many letters giving information on these lines—Young, Pennington and Yoho. Much interest is centered on the Yoho line and Denver Yoho has sent the marriage date and the county in which his (Roy's) great-grandparents, Henry and Rebecca Adams Yoho were married.

Denver states a Yoho Family Society was organized in June of 1987. He would like for all the families of Yoho and Yohe to send in information to be compiled in the Bulletin that will be published from time to time. If you would like to help on this I'll be glad to be of assistance, just write to me.

My great-great grandfather, Ransom Harris, was born February 29, 1812, the son of Gilliam and Eliza Whitney Harris and the father of Harriett Harris, who married James Lewis Young.

Ransom Harris served in the Black Hawk War, May 15, 1832 and mustered out August 15, 1832 as Corporal under Benjamin B. Wells. Ransom was entitled to bounty land for his service. He sold land in Wayne County and on the land transfer his wife's name appeared as Kemelia. He was married to Carmelia Kennedy. Many of his family made the trip with him including Lewis and Harriett Young and three daughters who were born in Missouri. His son, Cornelious Harris, wife Sarah Childress and one daughter were born there. Also with him were his daughter Martha married first to J. Powers and their three children who were born there. The Lewis Young family and others returned to Wayne county by 1870 and were in the census that year. After J. Powers died Martha married Johnson D. Young, brother to James Lewis.

Daniel Henry Young and Louvisie Locke's daughter, married Gilliam Harris the youngest son of Ransom Harris. her name was Elizabeth Young. Daniel Henry too was a brother of James Lewis.

Another brother of James Lewis to be accounted for was Samuel Young married first to Jane (Clark?) and married second to Francis Fanny White. One of their daughters Ida May Young married Clim V. Long and there are many descendants around the Cisne and Geff area. Virgil Long descends from this line as well as Florence Burton, Bessie Davis and many others. I'll be glad to hear from any of these descendants.

Roy and I have had a good year for us. He still has health problems but the Lord has blessed us in wonderful ways.

We have had a few visitors through the year. Karen Jeffrey Gibson, who lives near by as well as our family, Marjorie and Gene Kulker from Salem, a sister to Geraldine Withrow, my sister-in-law. Also Clifton R. Withrow from Kansas City, Mo., came by with his wife, sister and her husband and we spent the afternoon talking "Withrow family". He thinks I should put out a supplement but I have been helping type on the Weaver Book and want to turn my attention to the Young line.

We are having rain and chilly weather at present so wait till February to come out.

Wishing all a good 1988. Thank you all for remembering us in many special ways. Good health and happiness.

October 23, 1987

Dear Maurice and Shirley,

I got your package yesterday and I must say that I was more impressed by your observation about the futility of trying to sort this material into a meaningful organization than I was about the content of the obits. That proposition has been a plague on this house for some time now. I am resigned to the fact that there must be some abrupt stops.

Deja vu has also been a big problem that parallels the broader problem. I recognized that Joseph Ridenour belonged in the Ritter family but the associated names Cozart, Metz and others made me feel that they also belonged to the Cravens also but I can't make the fit. The same is true for Mary Merritt Russell and Leona Merritt Cline. The names Powless, Waln Cline ring a bell but that is about all. I could have sworn that I wrote the Merritt and Waln piece but it must have been in a dream. Add to that no marriage record. Inasmuch as we did not go to Union until Saturday morning, it was probably a figment of my little imagination. But I still don't know who Alfred Merritt belonged to.

I assume that William G. Merritt was from the wing of the family that Bruce Hannaford's mother came from.

I am amazed at how you can keep all this stuff sorted out in your mind and draw on it so quickly. This is especially true if the Ridenours are only Ritters because our only joint work was in the late evening kitchen table session last winter. I am sure that I could give you a lot more newspaper clippings if only my mind could recall the names like you do. I am still thumbing through the Cravens page by page. It might be good to sit down and read what I have written one of these days.

Vernette is back in Virginia after a week end excursion to see Aunt Lulu in Knoxville. She will be back a week from tomorrow and it won't be too soon. She is so much better in working with mother than I am.

The snow missed us but it is plenty chilly. When you get here it will be the season for chili.

Alice Gaither called last night to tell me about a Creighton from Springfield who was visiting in Fairfield. It was too much of a long shot for me to worry about it now.

We look forward to having you here in the near future. Vernette will probably want a couple of days to red up the chaos I have created in her absence, but she should be in a position to set a schedule by the shank of next week.

Biel & Vernette

January 7, 1988

Dear Maurice and Shirley,

We were sorry to hear that you had to spend part of your holidays in the hospital. We made a few attempts to call you but we always assumed that you were in Anderson or Fort Wayne or somewhere. We hope that you will soon be well and up and at them again. You are just as well off in not being here this week. It is really cold and we just can't get anything moving.

This is a bit of an awkward week because I have many of the notes from the papers worked in except for a few that require a good deal of searching for the people.

In working in some of the Funkhouser stuff, I am finding more and more misuses. I just noticed that she has Alberta married to Robert Perry on p. 168 and to Robert Everett on page 174, except that she is an Alstin on p. 174. From your notes and mine, I find that Robert Perry married Margie Kennan, the granddaughter of Wm. Newby. I have had it. I am going to split sheet Frieda so I can keep track of these things.

When I started to do the Jennings Wheat and Eliza Short obits, I find that they are all under Asa Funkhouser Barbre so I can't do them until we get together again. You have explained to me who Asa was and was not, but I did not make notes because I thought I was too far away from them. When we next get together, we can get that one straightened out. I still think that the Shorts who live in the Wright house are a part of the Funkhouser family.

Today is mother's 93rd birthday but she is not sure whether she is 16 or 100. She has been very sharp for several days but this one is a little different.

I would like to spend time on the Hannafords soon. I have started working in what the newspapers gave us, and the several articles on John. That sent me on a hunt to the library for Colorado ghost towns. That has been fun but it contributed little to knowledge of the Hannafords.

Bill Thomas found some Cravens material in Kentucky which I am enclosing.

We hope you are well on the way to being at full speed when this letter gets to you.

Bill & Maurice

I am still at a loss as to why so many of the Cravens obits are missing. There is some slippage among the Owen, Monroe and Thatcher wings but nothing to compare with the Cravens. The Sheltons were regular news items in this last roll.

There were a couple of one liners about John and Helen Hannaford coming home on the week end from their school work. Did they board in Fairfield during the week? I would assume that they might have stayed with their grandmother during the week.

I have ordered the next roll which will take us to 1934. Sometime we must decide what we want to do about white and other counties. I have also collected enough loose ends to justify another trip to Fairfield.

When you get to where you feel up to it and the weather appears to be predictable for a few days, I may just take you up on the invitation to work a couple of days in Indiana.

Sincerely,

Belle & Linn

—One of the encouraging signs of the times, in the eyes of a growing friendship between the West and South. This is partly due to the closer commercial relations which exist between the farmers of the Northwest, and the planters of the South, but this sentiment is enormously strengthened by the unity of interests of these sections, as contrasted with antagonistic interests of New England. The West and South need money capital, New England and the importing interests virtually say to the producers of the West and South, "you shall not have money capital so long as we can keep it from you by class legislation, trickery, or financial deceptions." If the producing classes were thoroughly organized in Greenback Clubs, and other convenient forms of organization, so that an interchange of views between the representative producers of the West and South could be had upon the current issues of the day, a feeling of mutual regard and confidence would soon spring up, the beneficial effects of which would be incalculable.

—Dr. Sibley, vaccinated 20 persons before breakfast one day last week, and 100 after breakfast. Can't say how high the number would have run, but the vaccine matter became exhausted.

—Cloyd Bothwell, of Zif, and his brother Charles who lives in the grasshopper-stricken portion of Missouri, were in town on Wednesday. The latter comes as an agent from his township to solicit aid. The crops planted this Spring have been almost destroyed by the hoppers and the people very badly need the assistance of the more fortunate residents of Southern Illinois. Zif township last week held a meeting for the purpose of raising provisions, etc., for this humane work. We have not learned the result of the gathering. But it was supposed that that region of the country would contribute a car load of material "aid and comfort."

—Odd Fellows' Celebration at Middleton, Saturday, July 3rd. No further particulars have been sent us.

Club and Grange News.

GRANGE NEWS.—A meeting of the Wayne County Grange, Farmers of Northwestern, will be held at St. Louis, Saturday, August 10th, at 10 o'clock a. m. Let every Grange be fully represented and have credentials properly signed and mailed.

All fourth degree members are invited to meet with us.

J. H. PATTERSON, Sec'y.

The N. Y. World states its position thus: "When the work of organization is completed and the Order has settled down into a practical working course, the necessity for the National Grange as a body, with legislative powers or the control of funds, will vanish. The State Granges will ultimately be simplified and become merely conventions of business agents for purposes of consultations. The County Grange is to be the unit of the Order and the seat of its strength."

—We are social beings, especially women, who love to tell what we know, and learn what others know as well. The Grange is the means of bringing farmers together, affording an opportunity not only for an interchange of ideas, the dissemination of thought and the cultivation of their social natures, but affording themes of family thought and conversation intervening Grange meetings. The duties and privileges of citizenship become better known, the amenities of life more thoroughly understood and appreciated: a vast amount of useful information obtained concerning agricultural pursuits, etc., etc. Wisely conducted, and circumscribed within proper limits, the Grange will be the instrument of immense good, and we hope that it has many years of usefulness before it.

Died.—On Saturday evening 26th inst., of quick consumption, THOMAS EDWARD BONHAM, only son of E. and B. E. Bonham of this place, aged thirteen years, ten months and fifteen days.

We have laid our little boy down to rest where the green grass grows and where the flowers bloom. In the silent graveyard where sleep other loved forms, our dear one sleeps. No care can reach him now, nor pain, nor sorrow, affect his happiness; for though the casket may moulder into dust in the narrow house, the bright jewel which once inhabited it has been added to the myriad of gems that sparkle in the Savior's crown. Saved from the ills and disappointments of life—safe at rest in the Father's house above. Father, mother! the loved one is gone from you—he whose infant feet your watchful care had taught to walk—whose young and tender mind your love had stored with precious truths—the plant God gave you to nurture and water has been transplanted to a brighter

100% DURUM WHOLE WHEAT PASTA

DURUM is the hard spring wheat grown in the Northern States and used the world over, to make the best Pastas available. Since DURUM WHEAT is very expensive, many commercial Pasta makers use blends of hard winter wheat to cut costs. Hodgson Mill uses ONLY 100% DURUM, to make their superior quality Pastas. Also, Hodgson Mill Pastas are made using the Whole Grain, including the wheat germ and bran fiber, thereby retaining all the nutrients and goodness that nature so bountifully supplied in the wheat. White Pastas, that are produced by other Pasta makers, do not include this very important wheat germ and bran fiber, thereby throwing away the major part of many of the nutrients and much of the natural flavor.
Hodgson Mill Pastas are made from 100% DURUM WHEAT. It is wheat as nature intended it to be. Hodgson Mill adds no preservatives, colors, softeners, or conditioners. Our superior taste comes only from the wheat we use.

The GODDARD

Association of America

Dedicated to the preservation of Goddard and Goddard-related family history

KATHRYN GODDARD MEYER
Membership Secretary
118 South Volusia
Wichita, KS 67211
316/682-4942

To All Subscribers to The Goddard Book:

Dear Colleagues:

At long last, Volume II of The Goddard Book has gone to the printer and will be available for distribution sometime between April 1 and May 1, 1990. This completes 12 years of full-time writing plus another eight years of gathering of information.

I believe you will proud of this Book, of which you have already received Volume I. Volume II completes this publishing project.

Attached to this letter is the invoice, prepared by Kathryn Goddard Meyer, executive secretary of the Association which shows what you owe, if any-thing, on the original order you placed; AND it shows the extra $12.00 per Book (NOT per volume) that the executive committee of The Goddard Association of America decided had to be added in order to publish Volume II in its expanded form. This is explained more fully in the Memorandum, attached.

Remember, that the original price was on the basis of a one-volume project which would contain about 500 pages. Actually, Volume I contained 596 pages, and a second Volume was projected on the basis of the same size. However, we had to double the size of Volume II in order to include all essential information. The actual number of pages in the volume is 1148; in both volumes, there are 1748 pages, more than three times the size of the original projection for the Goddard record. Fortunately, we have not had to increase the price by three times!

If you have questions about the invoice attached, first, please read the attached Memorandum. Then if you do not understand or have further questions, you may write or call one of the following:

Kathryn Goddard Meyer, Executive Secretary, Goddard Association of America, 118 South Volusia, Wichita, KS 67211. Tele: 1-316/682-4942, OR

John W. Harms, Editor of The Goddard Book, address below.

I want to thank you sincerely for supporting this project with information and orders for Books ... and for the advance deposits you have made on your orders. Without that support we could not have undertaken the publication of such a comprehensive resource Book about the Goddard/Godards. I am confident that this two-volume Book will be cherished by you and your descendants ... and that it will be used by thousands of people for a few hundred years.

With my sincere thanks,

John W. Harms, Editor,
The Goddard Book

December 29, 1987

Dear Maurice and Shirley,

We really appreciated the color pictures of the English estate. There is all the difference in the world between color and black and white. We were also impressed by what you have done with the Townsends. My only problem is that I must reorganize the European section of the book when I Bidenize your labors.

I have finished two more rolls of WCP and the pertinent articles are enclosed. A few would not print because they were dim or were too short to be worth a dime. The volume is so great that I am beginning to forget why I am doing some things. It is a little like the two old brigadiers sitting around their club in London when two miniskirted girls walked by. One said, "Chauncey, I can remember when I used to chase girls". Chauncey said, "Me too but I can't remember why".

Dear Margaret,

I enjoyed your letter so much. Thsnk you for all the copies from White County History. Yes, both Wayne County History and the poem in the Mary (Harris) Murphy scrapbook say the dog's name was "Beve".

So putting it all together, I would say the Boltinghouse boy was killed in now what is called Boltinghouse Prairie, which is about 6 miles southwest of Albion. That relatives and friends about two years later found some Indians with the pony, and disposed of the Indians. Where was Myers mill? I myself believe that West of the Wabash meant the friends came upon the Indians West of the Little Wabash, near the mouth of King's Creek. But someone else reading the story might think that the story in Yesteryears meant they Indians with the pony was found West of the Big Wabash.

Ever since I've been married to Loren he has said that the last Indian in Wayne County was killed at the mouth of King's Creek which empties in the Little Wabash south of Golden Gate. Anyway ~~xxx~~ I'm going to file this all away under Boltinghouse.

Margaret, I'll quote Mary Smith about the Shull family and I went to the cemetery and have the information of Elizabeth's Shull's birth and death. She and her sister, Catherine Bottoms are both buried at Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Elizabeth Schull, consort of Jacob Hunsinger, born 15 Sept 1786 died 11 Jan 1859 Census says she was born in Pennsylvania.

Jacob Hunsinger, her husband was born 31 March 1783 died 19 Dec 1862 Census shows he was born in North Carolina. Mary sent me the Census information.

Also Mary made the statement, "Hunsinger's Moravians"/? which sent me an an interesting exploration. John Hus or Jans Hus preceded Martin Luther by about a century and condemned such practices of the Catholic Church as did Martin Luther later, and got by with his life. Hus lost his and was burned at the stake. The Bohemian people just west of Germany revolted and the little principalities of Moavia and Bohemia had a little empire for awhile. The Moravians came to Georgia in 1735 to do missionary work among the Indians. Then moved to Pennsylvania and down to North Carolina from Pennsylvania. Winston-Salem ~~xxxx~~ in North Carolina today has a college. Bethlehem, Penn. was founded by Moravians, and I'm sure I read has a college today. Then just last Sunday my husband and I drove to West Salem, Illinois, not far from Albion and Olney, Ill. and went inside the Moravian Church there. A beautiful old brick. There we found, too, the old cemetery with the males in one plot, and the females in another ploy, the stones lying flat on the ground as in Winston-Salem North Carolina.

To quote Mary: "As for Jacob HuNsinger, I have a lot of information on Elizabeth Shull, his wife. I'll sketch it briefly and you can tell me if you already have it or if you'd like me to copy anything from the SCHOLL, SHOLL, SHULL GENEALOGY. Briefly, it states that Jacob's wife, (The Mt. Pleasant cemetery stone calls it "Consort") Elizabeth Shull, was the daughter

AUTO ACCIDENT CAUSES DEATH OF FARMER.

Jacob A. Musgrave Fatally Injured
In Accident When Wm. Kayes Car Hits Wagon.

Jacob Astor Musgrave, aged 52, and his son Merrill, 23, were victims of an automobile accident last Friday evening, June 26th, which cost the life of the former.

Mr. Musgrave and family live on the J. Wagner Hill farm, just east of the Mayleton road, and a short distance south of the hard road, No. 15. He and his sons Merrill and Glenn had brought two wagon loads of cross ties into Fairfield, and they were returning home about eight o'clock, just at dusk. They were driving the two wagons along some thirty feet apart, Mr. Musgrave and son Merrill on the forward wagon and Glenn, younger son, was driving the wagon in the rear. William Kayes, an employee of the Stock and Traffic department of the Sexton company, in a Chrysler roadster, and accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Armstrong and Miss Beanie Anderson, traveling west, saw and passed the rear wagon, but turned back onto the right side of the road without seeing the forward wagon, and crashed into it. Mr. Musgrave and his son were thrown onto the hard road. Mr. Musgrave suffered a fractured skull, broken ribs, internal injuries and an injured leg. The son suffered a fractured skull and other injuries.

The elder Mr. Musgrave was brought to Fairfield by T. O. Smith, who was just returning from a trip to Colorado, and Dr. Harlan, who examined the injured man, urged his immediate removal to the Mt. Vernon hospital, where Mr. Musgrave died before morning. The son, Merrill, was taken to his home. The next day he walked over and looked at the wrecked wagon. Later his condition became worse and was considered dangerous but he is now reported improving.

The wagons were within a hundred feet of the lane leading off to the Musgrave home, and in a couple of minutes more the wagons would have been off the hard road. The Chrysler it was said, was not traveling at live speed. A coroner's inquest was held at Mt. Vernon for the senior Mr. Musgrave and a verdict of accidental death was rendered. It was shown that the accident was unavoidable.

The Chrysler car was considerably damaged, but none of the occupants were injured. Mr. Kayes, who later was found for a while driving the

INTERVIEWS.

Dr. F. P. Davis, Timewell, Ill.—It seems to pay to advertise in the Wayne County Press. Wife and I have been visiting here for some days, and we lost her Eastern Star Pin. W. B. Ferguson of the Brown hotel, found it, and it was returned to the Misses, in good shape. We like to come back to Wayne county two or three times a year. The old county certainly does look good to us every time we come.

T. H. Thomas—Here's another year's subscription to the old Press. I have been reading it ever since I used to, as a five year old, "snooze" in between my father's knees, and he would read it to me and help me to learn to read from it. What was good enough for father is certainly good enough for me.

C. C. Hill—There's a lot of fine cherries this year. I had a tree of the late Mammoth Richmond variety, seven years old, that yielded 15 or 40 gallons of the finest cherries you ever saw. It's an awful job for a fat man to pick cherries, but I just took off my coat, rolled up my sleeves and went to the job.

John Gregory—I don't like this season very much. There is not enough hot weather. I have it all figured out why we have had such a cold summer. Those north pole explorers have been making holes in the atmosphere and through these holes the cold air has come down to the United States. Fairfield is not keeping up with Eldorado. That town started work on the promoting of a Campe factory long after Fairfield did, and now Eldorado is almost ready for the machinery in their new Campe plant. I reckon you'll have to call on the farmers surrounding Fairfield to help you raise that money for the Campe.

Jesse I. Grubb—Am building a new bungalow in the west end of Fairfield. The west end is the coming part of town. Several new houses are going up in West Fairfield. And Fairfield has a lot of room to grow in the west—it can grow clear out to the Y and it will some day.

H. F. Howard—Am 22 years old, and am a widower and am bacheling. It is lonely bacheling at 22. I was born in Ohio but have been on the same farm near Mayleton, for more than 62 years now. I have always been a democrat, but reading your paper the last few years, has almost

COOPERATION NEEDED TO SOLVE SCHOOL PROBLEMS.

Secretary Illinois Teachers' Association Urges Mothers Appeal For Help In Solve Problems.

The city of Harvey, Cook county, has been having a few months of school, but for lack of school funds will have only eight months next year. In the West Frankfort district, Franklin county, one-fourth of the annual school expenditures is for interest on anticipation warrants and on teachers' orders. Other examples might be cited to show that many localities have difficult school problems.

An attempt is being made to interest several state-wide organizations in the problems of the public schools and to inspire a general effort to solve them. The State Teachers' Association has just sent an appeal to the officers of several other organizations to study the problems and has offered to distribute to such officers the facts and statistics found by its research department and committee, which consists of expert, experienced educators earnestly endeavoring to learn the truth about education in Illinois.

Some of the organizations appealed to are the Illinois Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, the Illinois League of Women Voters, the State Federation of Woman's Clubs, the State Federation of Labor, the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, and the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The teachers fully realize that no marked permanent improvements can be made without the understanding, cooperation, and support of the people in general—in other words, that public school problems are for the public to solve. Therefore, its officers and members ardently desire and are trying to promote a greater interest in the schools, a more general understanding of school problems, and the active co-operation of all the people in their solution. Without such interest, understanding and co-operation on the part of the public, it is certain that the inequalities in school tax rates, indebtedness, length of term, educational opportunities, and quality of schools will become even more extreme than they are now and educational problems more alarming.
